Adjusting the Projected Image: Adjusting the Projection Angle

Press the quick-release button and lift the front of the projector.

Once the image is positioned, release the button to lock the foot in position.

Screw the rear adjuster foot to fine-tune the horizontal angle.
Adjusting the Projected Image: Auto-adjusting the image

Press Auto on the projector or remote control

Within three seconds, the built-in Intelligence Auto Adjustment function will re-adjust the values of Frequency and Clock to provide the best picture quality.
Adjusting the Projected Image: Fine-tuning the image clarity

Sharpen the image by rotating the focus ring.

Before focusing  After focusing
Adjusting the Projected Image: Correcting keystone

Press \textit{MENU/EXIT} and then press $\leftarrow\rightarrow$ until the \textit{DISPLAY} menu in highlighted.

Press $\downarrow$ to highlight Keystone and press \textit{MODE/ENTER}. The Keystone correction displays.

Press $\uparrow\downarrow$ to correct keystoning at the top of the image. Press $\uparrow\downarrow$ to correct keystoning at the bottom of the image.